CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Your Honor,

With regards to this case I feel the amount of information that is published by the Voter Reference Foundation violates my privacy. All they need to know is that I am a registered voter. They have no need to know or publish my address, my registration, and whether I voted. In today's environment information like that invites intrusion and intimidation efforts, and I am not one to be intimidated. I also cherish the secret ballot and I see this effort as the first step in a move to overturn that. Please do not allow these things to happen.
